DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-5, 9, 12, 14-24, 28-38 and 41-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brochure from 3M™ Optical System Div. (75-0500-5195-4 (2002)) (3M Brochure hereon) in view of Ogido Haruo (JP9157600) (Haruo hereon).

3M Brochure teaches a mountable display screen filter system (fig. A) comprising: a frameless display screen filter (shown in fig. A, not labeled) which may be an after-market addition, to adhere to a housing (shown fig. 2, not labeled) of a LCD display screen (shown in fig. A, not labeled) and a first side (upper side) of the display screen filter being attached to the housing, a plurality of clasps (shown in fig. B) to adhere to the housing and hold a second side of the display screen filter adjacent the housing without adhering to the display screen filter (shown in fig. B4); wherein the clasps comprise a rigid member including an adhesive over a first portion of the member to adhere to the housing and substantially no adhesive over a second portion to hold the second side of the display screen filter adjacent the housing without adhering to the display screen filter (shown in fig. B); and a method for attaching the filter (claims 32-38).

3M Brochure fails to teach an adhesive hinge being adhered to the housing and the first side of the display screen filter.

Haruo teaches an adhesive hinge tape for firmly joint two objects together, wherein the adhesive hinge comprises a rigid substrate with a layer of adhesive material coated on one side of the substrate (see abstract and the figure), alignment marks or a crease comprising a score (a-a'). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device of 3M Brochure with the adhesive hinge tape taught by Haruo for movably attached to the display screen and easily access to the display screen surface for cleaning.

3. Claims 7, 10-11, 26 and 40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over 3M Brochure in view of Haruo.

3M Brochure in view of Haruo discloses the claimed invention except the clasps comprising a memory material and the rigid substrate of the adhesive hinge comprising a metal or a plastic. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select a memory material for the clasps and a metal or a plastic for the rigid substrate of the adhesive hinge of the device of 3M Brochure in view of Haruo, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use for the purpose of strong enough to hold the filter in place.

4. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over 3M Brochure in view of Haruo.

3M Brochure in view of Haruo discloses the claimed invention except the adhesive hinge including a source identifier. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made that an adhesive hinge may include a source identifier, since the Examiner takes Official Notice that an adhesive hinge may include a source identifier. If the Applicant choose to properly challenge the fact that an adhesive hinge may include a source identifier, supportive document(s) will be provided upon request.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 6, 8, 25, 27 and 39 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The best prior art of record, Brochure from 3M™ Optical System Div. (75-0500-5195-4 (2002)), Ogido Haruo (JP9157600), Hung (US 5,404,181), and Shu-Ying Chen (GB 2 301 512 A), taken alone or in combination, fails to teach or fairly suggest a mountable display screen filter system comprising, in addition to other limitations: a plurality of clasps including a first member having an adhesive and a second member for holding a display screen filter, wherein the second member rotates relative to the first member as set forth in claims 6, 25 and 39; or the clasps comprising a pre-molded portion of a housing of a display screen as set forth in claims 8 and 27.
